POWERPOINT PRESENTATIONS (PPT)

Presentations have become an indispensable part for any sales promotion or marketing activity. Business presentations not only help to link the communication gap between the parties in communication, but also preserve the time as much of the content can be envisioned. Everex Infotech can present you with Corporate Presentations, Multimedia presentations or a blend of both.

✦ Multimedia Presentations

Multimedia presentations are usually required for large events or gatherings. A blend of Audio and Visual effects makes a perfect Multimedia presentation. Voice over and movie files add to the vivacity of such presentations.

✦ Corporate Presentations

Corporate Presentations are usually made for purposes where a detailed description about the company, its product portfolio etc has to be given to the clients. This makes the task of the marketing manager easier as he/she does not has to go though the entire description that the client can get from the presentation.

WEB GRAPHICS & EMAILER DESIGNS

Graphic quality is what separates a site from those with a similar idea, or content. Everex Infotech specializes in many areas related to graphic designing. We are committed to producing professional, cost effective images to help you exceed your business goals each and every time. Your satisfaction is our main priority.

Today most of your business communication is done via e-mails as they are not only formal and legitimate but also useful and cost effective. Due to its wide spread importance it is very critical to have proper email created which is easy to view and is compatible with multiple operating systems. When it comes to the structure and make of an e-mail, it has to be done with accuracy and a dash of creativity, for the fact that its content, layout, design, feel should be one with a brand's signature.

LOGO AND STATIONERY DESIGN

As an accomplished Logo design company in Mumbai we take the onus on ourselves to provide our clients the character which helps them get respect and is capable of portraying the organization values, objective, vision and mission.

Our corporate logo design process begins with a brief from the client as to their expectations and demands that the logo should fulfill. This also includes answers to the preferred colors, the tag line, the company name other similarities and aversions.

Everex Infotech continues a product's logo branding into business stationery design. Everex Infotech specializes in offering custom designs that include business card, letterhead and envelope to chose from as well as bespoke office stationery design service, allowing you the ultimate flexibility to find something truly relevant to your business.

The stationery designs include

- ✦ Visiting Cards
- ✦ Envelope
- ✦ Letter head

Why Choose Us?

- We built brands that can grow with you, underpinning the core values and essence of your company, product or service through our designs. Brands that enable you to communicate to your audience with a unique personality across all channels.
- Our experience providing branding services to companies large and small gives us a unique insight into various industries. We design brands from scratch, providing high quality and long term corporate identities. Our design capabilities extend to brand collateral; from brochures to business cards and banners, we implement your corporate identity and campaign designs into all print media.
- What makes our approach unique? We don't just give you a logo, we consider what will work for your company. We do our research, understand your business and produce a brand identity that will guide your company to the future.
